V. Old Business

VI. New Business

Commissioner Jones announced that he has formed a Recreation Real Estate Acquisition Committee to look at acquiring land near the Recreation Department. The members of the committee are: John Trammell, Don Boggus, Paul Nealey, Kathy Bruce, Dan Pool and Andrea Logan.

VII. Guests/Comments

Citizen asked for more information on some Agenda items and information was given by Commissioner Jones. He also had a question about the Recreation Budget. Commissioner Jones explained that the Recreation budget is not based on the sales tax but was funded by the County and from registration fees from the student who is playing. Our charge is $60.00 per child. Neighboring counties south of us charge as much as $250.00 per child. When asked if the Recreation Project could take place before the Courthouse Project the County Attorney, Phil Landrum replied No, that it had to be done after the Courthouse Project. Commissioner Jones explained that it is a state law. It is set up as a Tier: such as, There is a Tier I, Tier II, etc. The Courthouse Project is in Tier I and Recreation is in Tier 2 category. Angela Mitchell, reporter for the Pickens County Progress, asked Commissioner Jones what automatic aid was and he replied that automatic aid between fire departments when there was a fire in the community they would be able to contact the other areas to help with the situation. Today is the first day that Grandview Station #5, on Cove Road, went on-line – 24/7 with 2 full-time firemen. It has 24/7 ambulance Service and has had for about two years. Evan Moorehouse commented that automatic aid is when you send a signal out to Station 9 it also goes to Stations 5 & 6. Mutual Aid is when you call And ask for help.

VII. Adjournment
